Library Guide

Korea University Library opens up a new future for pioneering intellectuals.

Main Library

Opened in 1978, renovated the entire building in June 2004, and remodeled the 1st floor in March 2019, the Main Library with the granite walls holds 1.3 million books related to the fields of humanities and social sciences.

Graduate School Library

Established in September 1937 with national donations to commemorate the 30th anniversary of Bosung College, the beautiful Main Library (Graduate School Building) is designated as historical relic No. 286 by the city of Seoul.

Centennial Digital Library (CDL)

Opened in May 2005 to celebrate Korea University's 100th anniversary, the CDL located in Centennial Memorial Samsung Hall houses facilities and devices that provide library users with a vast array of digital content and a wide range of multimedia-related programs. CDL lounges reflect the changing study trends and offer user-friendly study areas.

CJ Creator Library(CCL)

Opened in May 2017, the CCL offers studios to create media content and hold club performances and academic events. Instead of books and reading tables, the CCL provides a wooden floor where students can freely relax and lie down to study. There is also a study room where students can adjust the size of it as they desire.

Science Library

Opened in 1983, the Science Library, located on the Science campus, houses over 540,000 books and comprehensive academic resources in the fields of engineering, natural sciences, and public health.

Haesong Law Library

Opened on March 2007, the Law Library is a law research library which houses over 100,000 books related to the field of law. It is designed with a state-of-art aesthetic and openly transparent structure. This library also provides a study-friendly atmosphere to its users.

Sudang Digital Library

Opened in 2005, the Sudang Digital Library was established through the sincere devotion of Sanghong Kim ('41 Business, 1923-2010) in honoring the late Sudang Yeon-su Kim (1896-1979, the founder of Samvang Corporation). Located on the third floor of the LG-POSCO Business Hall, it houses books and serials in the field of business and operates its own service that subscribes to sixteen different types of professional business databases.

ARI East Asian Library

The ARI East Asian Library, located on the fourth floor of the Asiatic Research Center Building, houses over 10,000 books in the fields of humanities and social sciences along with restricted books related to North Korea.

Foreign Research Information Center

Located on the second floor of the Main Library, the Foreign Research Information Center (FRIC) offers Document Delivery Services of articles published in international journals in the humanities (Philosophy, Religion, Linguistics, and History) free of charge.

* Foreign Research Information Center: http://www.fric.kr/

Open Library

The Open library is equipped with newly published books, provides a reading space with a relaxing and learner-friendly atmosphere with access to displayed books to support its users. The Open libraries provide data by considering the characteristics of each space, such as comics and hobbies

Medical Library

The Korea University Medical Library(KUML) is the special library which houses resources related to education, research, and treatment concerning medical, health, and nursing. It began as the library of the Gyeongseong Women's Medical Training Institute in 1938. Receiving support from the Alumni Association and the Board of Trustees of the College of Medicine, the library was built and opened as a four-story building on the Green campus in March 1991, and renovated in 2019.

Sejong Academic Information Center

The Sejong Academic Information Center handles information-oriented affairs on the Sejong campus. Its top priority is providing rapid information services and a user-friendly environment to meet the standards of a knowledge-based society in the 21st century.

Loan/Return/Reservation of books

Library users can borrow books except for serials, reference books, and course reserves books. Users can check out books either at the circulation desk or through the BEID self-service system. If books that users need are already on loan to someone else, the reservation list service gives priority to users to reserve those books (3 books per person).

* Loan extensions: three days prior to the scheduled due date (Reserved materials can not be extended) | Loan limits for overdue days | Access to the library and use of facilities will be restricted when library resources are more than 30 days overdue. I Cannot cancel loan requests once an arrival notice has been issued. If users do not pick up their loan within 3 days of receiving the arrival notice, the loan reservation service will be restricted for 30 days.

Simple Loan Service

Users may borrow books by using the Smart Self-Service Machines on campus without visiting the Main/Science/Medical Libraries. (Up to 3 books simultaneously. Once an arrival notice has been issued, users cannot cancel the loan request.)

InterCampus Loan

This system offers a branch loan service, which allows library users at either the Seoul or Seiong campus library to request a transfer from one site to another when library resources are not available at their affiliated campus library. (Resources from the Seiong Academic Information Center can not be returned by the RFID system)

Course Reserves

Each library in the university runs its own course reserves section that holds specific books that are separately displayed according to topic and major. (Not allowed to check out / Copy, Scan Available)

Purchase Request

Library users can request a purchase of necessary resources (books, e-books, and other materials). Users will be able to make reservations when newly arrived resources are being organized and prepared for lending by the library. Guidelines for subscribing to iournals and eResources are available at the library website.

X Users can check relevant information on their purchase requests from the website, and receive it via e-mail and SMS

Library Card

Graduates and visiting/exchange students who do not possess smart cards issued from the one-stop center but wish to use the library are required to apply for a library card to have access to the library.
